Wine Enthusiast

“Crafted by winemaker Chris Peterson, this wine is named after vineyard manager Miguel Rodriguez. It’s composed of 70% merlot and has aromas offering notes of leaf, coffee, a medley of dried herbs, dark cherry and barrel spices. The palate is flavorful and rich but also shows a beautiful sense of restraint to the fruit and herb flavors. The structure is lovely. Gorgeous stuff with a very long life ahead of it.”- Sean Sullivan
